

Scholarship Application

Only journalism MAJORS (not pre-majors) who will be enrolled full time (12 or more hours) in the Fall 2010 semester are eligible for school scholarships. (Graduate students must be enrolled in 9 hours to be eligible.)

Please type all responses in this form. All spaces must be completed. Please be concise. Print when completed, and after obtaining a UNT unofficial transcript from the Registrar's office (147 ESSC), deliver the application and transcript to the Journalism Office at GAB 102. Deadline is Friday, March 26, 2010 at 5 p.m. Your application will not be accepted if an unofficial transcript from the Registrar's office is not included. Maintain a copy for your records. See essay directions on second page.

Please write a brief essay explaining why you think you should be awarded the requested scholarship(s). Be passionate. Your essay may be the deciding factor on whether you or someone else receives the scholarship. Remember, too, this is a journalism scholarship. Write it as a journalist. Grammar, spelling and punctuation count. Type your essay in one and a half pages double-spaced with a 12-point font (400 words or fewer). Remember to check the instructions at the top of this document.
