We'll Definitely Give You an Edge at the Mayborn

Writers studying their craft at The Writer's Garret continue to score big at the Mayborn Literary Nonfiction Conference sponsored by the University of North Texas. Since starting these Pre-Mayborn Intensives, ALL of our writers have been chosen for the 50 coveted spots in the Writing Workshops. Many of our writers have received publication through the conference, even taking the # 1 spot in this highly competitive summer program! Our workshops are open to anyone with a work in progress, be it a personal essay, narrative, or manuscript. If you don't yet have a work in progress, we even have a workshop Saturday, April 18, to get you going. Registration is now open by calling (214) 828-1715 or check out our website at www.writersgarret.org.

SPECIAL GUEST at both workshops will be George Getschow, Writer in Residence at the Mayborn Graduate School of Journalism, University of North Texas. He'll provide an inside look at this year's Conference as well as their national writing competition and their narrative certification program, which includes a residential Writers Workshop in Archer City, Larry McMurtry's physical and literary birthplace. It's a week-long immersion experience in McMurtryland, and "students" will spend one day inside Larry McMurtry's home, talking to the author about his writing life.
