RE: Freedom of Information Foundation of Texas

Our office received your request for copies of our use of force policies, death reports and use of force reports since January 1, 2000. Our policies are currently being renewed and must be accepted. You are welcome to make your request again at a later date, and we will supply any needed information. There will be no death reports to supply, because there have been no such deaths since January 1, 2000.

Any further information required may be directed to Sheriff Kenneth A. Burns
